Councilmember Heilman spoke regarding the need to invest more resources in marketing as new hotels are being built in the City. He spoke regarding the significant increase in funding associated with the new BID. He expressed concerns regarding the need to ensure all hotels are in compliance with the City's Living Wage Ordinance. He spoke in support of including a condition that the BID could not promote any hotel that is not in compliance with the Living Wage Ordinance.

Councilmember Prang requested clarification from Staff about whether the City could include a provision to require hotels to be in conformance with the City's Living Wage Ordinance as part of the approval of the BID.

City Attorney Jenkins provided clarification of the Item before Council and spoke regarding the fact that any substantive change to the Item would require the process to be started over.

The City’s Consultant, John Lambeth, provided clarification of the Item before the Council.

Mayor Land spoke regarding the possibility of adopting the Item as presented and directing Staff to return with a future Item to investigate the possibility of imposing the Living Wage Ordinance on hotels in the City.

City Attorney Jenkins spoke regarding previous investigations into the possibility of requiring hotels to conform to the Living Wage Ordinance and the difficulties surrounding the topic.

Councilmember Heilman requested clarification from Staff on the proposed contract that will be brought forward to Council at a future meeting. Staff provided clarification that the contract will be between Visit West Hollywood and the City, similar to the contract the City currently is under.

Mayor Land spoke regarding the importance of hotels and restaurants to pay a living wage in the City. She spoke in support of giving direction to the City Attorney and City Manager to investigate the possibility of finding a mechanism to either require hotels to pay a living wage or to require the BID to only provide marketing funding to hotels that conform to the City's Living Wage Ordinance.

City Attorney Jenkins spoke regarding the concerns raised by City Council regarding the living wage issues for hotels and spoke regarding the need to proceed very carefully. He provided clarification of State laws regarding levying an assessment on a business. He spoke regarding the possibility of continuing the Item to a future meeting to allow Staff to investigate the issues further.
