

HOMELESS, NOT HOPELESS.

The City of West Hollywood's Homeless Initiative includes health and human services specialists, mental health clinicians, substance abuse providers, and law enforcement.

If you are concerned about a community member who is homeless or if your business is being impacted, don't hesitate to reach out to any of the following resources:

Criminal Activity/Safety Concerns

Call the West Hollywood Sheriff's Station for issues that are criminal or safety-related.

- Life-threatening emergencies or criminal activity, call 911.
- For evening, weekend, and time-sensitive (but non-emergency) inquiries, call the West Hollywood Sheriff's Station at (310) 855-8850.

Homeless Services/Concern for Homeless Individuals

The City offers a myriad of services and programs for people who are homeless or at risk of homelessness.

- Call the City's Social Services Division at (323) 848-6510 for more information about services.
- If you are concerned about a community member who is homeless and want to request an outreach team to respond, call the Concern Line at (323) 848-6590. This is a non-emergency number.

Vacant/Abandoned Properties/Encampments

The City's Code Compliance Division handles oversight of residential and commercial properties, including vacant and abandoned properties.

- During business hours, call Code Compliance at (323) 848-6375.
- Outside business hours, call the Code Compliance message line at (323) 848-6516.

More information is available at www.weho.org/homeless

City of West Hollywood
California 1984