SUBJECT:                    2026 WEHO PRIDE ARTS FESTIVAL UPDATE

PREPARED BY:    ARTS DIVISION

Rebecca Ehemann, Arts Manager

Mike Che, Arts Coordinator

STATEMENT ON THE SUBJECT:

The Subcommittee will receive a presentation from City staff and the LA LGBT Center on the 2026 WeHo Pride Arts Festival.

RECOMMENDATION:

Receive the presentation and provide feedback, if needed, on the 2026 WeHo Pride Arts Festival plan.

BACKGROUND / ANALYSIS:

The City of West Hollywood's WeHo Pride Arts Festival (Arts Festival) is an annual LGBTQ+ arts festival which has taken place since 2008. The Arts Festival has taken many forms over the years ranging in length from 2 weeks long to 40 days (May 22 [Harvey Milk Day] – June 30) and ranged from 6 to 30+ activations.

The Arts Festival grew out of a 2006 report from a City Council-created Task Force devoted to evaluating the Christopher Street West (CSW) / LA Pride Parade and Festival, which took place in West Hollywood at the time. The report contained several recommendations, including to "Gradually extend the Pride Event to incorporate a month-long series of arts, film, cultural and social activities that celebrate the creativity and diversity of the West Hollywood/Los Angeles LGBT community."

Between 2008-2024, the Arts Festival evolved in name and scope alongside the City's other Pride events, a more detailed chronology of the Arts Festival is documented in

Attachment A.

In 2025, the City contracted with the LA LGBT Center as producer for the WeHo Pride Arts Festival. This allowed the 2025 festival for the first time to take place in a single, multi-venue location: the 4-venue Lily Tomlin/Jane Wagner Cultural Arts Center at the Los Angeles LGBT Center's Village at Ed Gould Plaza. The centralized location created a festival vibe with multiple activations taking place in the same area for people to experience. 250 local artists presented 24 performances & events (theatre, music, dance, film, spoken word, visual art, and art-making workshops) enjoyed by over 1,200 community members. Within the Arts Festival, there were both presentations with the community as audience members as well as participatory art-making workshops. Closing out each day, there was one showstopper event with no other concurrent programming, each of which was well attended and received. These main attractions included Celebration Theatre's staged reading of "Sweet Lorraine," a play inspired by the enduring friendship of Black, queer literary icons Lorraine Hansberry and James Baldwin; TNH Productions' "ARENA: the House Musical" about familia and finding oneself in the 90s House music scene; and a concert featuring the Trans Chorus of Los Angeles & Mariachi Arco•iris de Los Angeles. Additionally, several groups tabled during the event including the Getty Museum, LA County Library, P-Flag, Prism Comics, and the Queer Mercado provided art vendors.

Here are photographs from the official City photographers of the three days of the Arts Festival:

- WeHo Pride Arts Festival Day 2
- WeHo Pride Arts Festival Day 3

At its meeting on September 25, 2025, the Arts and Cultural Affairs Commission (ACAC) received and reviewed final reports and analysis of the 2025 festival and made recommendations to City Council. On October 20, 2025, the West Hollywood City Council ratified the Commission's recommendations including contracting with the LA LGBT Center for the years 2026, 2027, and 2028.

2026 WeHo Pride Arts Festival

The location of the LA LGBT Center's The Village at Ed Gould Plaza features several spaces for arts activities in one central location:

- 1) Renberg Theatre (traditional theatre, seats up to 183 people)
- 2) The Davidson/Valentini Theatre (traditional black box theater with movable stage elements and seating for 40–64 people on risers)
- 3) The Advocate & Gochis Galleries space (capacity 30-100 depending on layout)
- 4) The Village Courtyard (outdoor space with a stage area in the middle, accommodates 150 – 300 depending on layout).

The 2026 festival plan includes co-producing with community artists and organizations to activate all 4 spaces of The Village location. Programming includes both participatory art-making workshops and engaging audience presentations. Programming will take place from 12pm to 9:30pm each day, with a main attraction closing out each day in the Renberg Theatre.

The approach to the 2026 festival is one of inclusivity, diversity of artistic mediums, and presenting a combination of emerging and legacy artists and arts organizations alongside one another. Over 30 artist-led groups and arts organizations of varying sizes have been invited to propose events, several with the intention that they oversee open calls for other artists to participate.

Attachment A: WeHo Pride Arts Festival Background

WeHo Pride Arts Festival Historical Background Information (2006-25)

The City of West Hollywood's WeHo Pride Arts Festival (Arts Festival) is an annual program, since 2008, that celebrates and presents LGBTQ+ artists and thematic programming. This program is produced independently from the City's WeHo Pride Weekend and takes place during the City's WeHo Pride (May 22, Harvey Milk Day, to June 30). The Arts Festival has evolved in name and taken many forms over the years ranging in length from one weekend to 40 days.

- The WeHo Pride Arts Festival grew out of a 2006 report from a City Council-created Task Force devoted to evaluating the CSW/LA Pride Parade and Festival, which took place in West Hollywood at the time; the report contained several recommendations, including to “Gradually extend the Pride Event to incorporate a month-long series of arts, film, cultural and social activities that celebrate the creativity and diversity of the West Hollywood/Los Angeles LGBT community.”
- In 2008, the City's Arts and Cultural Affairs Commission undertook the challenge with a month-long celebration primarily by promoting existing LGBTQ-related arts events and exhibits taking place in West Hollywood.
- In 2009, the City branded this Pride Month arts festival as One City One Pride.
- In 2012, Council provided $25,000 of general fund dollars to support One City One Pride activities, which had been previously unbudgeted, and the Arts Division solicited programming through an open call.
- From 2013-2022, the City produced the One City One Pride LGBTQ Arts Festival primarily as an arts grant program, with an extended timeframe of May 22 to June 30 designed to encompass Harvey Milk Day and relieve pressure on City-owned venues during the month of June. During this time, in 2019, the City won a Savvy Marketing award from 3CMA, the City-County Communications & Marketing Association, on behalf of One City One Pride. The Stuart Timmons West Hollywood LGBTQ+ History tour and Pride Poets grew out of One City One Pride.
- In 2022, in conjunction with the City of West Hollywood's decision to program its own WeHo Pride separate from LA Pride, the One City One Pride Arts Festival was rebranded as WeHo Pride LGBTQ Arts Festival and then the following year as the WeHo Pride Arts Festival (omitting the word LGBTQ) because the word Pride already has a LGBTQ connotation.

- In 2023, the City first issued a Request for Qualifications (RFQ) for a qualified Arts Producer/Curator to administer the WeHo Pride Arts Festival. In 2023, Sean Knapp, HIT, was selected to administer the Arts Festival, and in 2024 Ruben Esparza Projects was selected.
- On September 26, 2024, the Arts and Cultural Affairs Commission recommended that the 2025 WeHo Pride Arts Festival take place from May 23-25, 2025 (Memorial Day Weekend) at LA LGBT Center's The Village at Ed Gould Plaza (1125 N. McCadden Place) with the LA LGBT Center as the Producer. These dates were chosen by the Commission primarily to avoid conflicting City and local Pride events, to assist in LGBTQ+ artist fatigue in June, and to build on the momentum and excitement of being before the WeHo Pride Weekend and before June Pride Month begins. The Commission recommended no programming take place on Memorial Day itself, as it is a day to honor those who died in the line of duty. On November 17, 2024, City Council ratified the Commission's recommendation.
- The 2025 Arts Festival took place Friday, May 23 to Sunday, May 25, 2025 (Memorial Day Weekend), and over 1,200 community members attended.
- During and after the 2025 Arts Festival, the City and LGBT Center administered an audience survey, both in person over the course of 3 days, and through an email to those who had attended. 87 people responded to the survey. The survey included questions regarding what people thought about the location and how they heard about the festival. An overwhelming number of survey respondents (92%) said they loved the LA LGBT Center location. Most people heard about the festival from notifications from the LA LGBT Center or City, followed closely by invitations from participating artists and word of mouth.

- On September 25, 2025, the Arts and Cultural Affairs Commission (ACAC) received and reviewed final reports and analysis for the 2025 WeHo Pride Arts Festival and recommended City Council approve the dates of May 23-24 for the 2026 festival, and authorize the City Manager to negotiate a three-year agreement with the Los Angeles LGBT Center to host and produce the WeHo Pride Arts Festival for the next 3 years, 2026, 2027, and 2028, with annual reviews to make sure that performance expectations are met. The Commission additionally recommended that Staff explore increasing the budget of the Arts Festival and explore the feasibility of adding a shuttle to the Arts Festival.
- On October 20, 2025, the West Hollywood City Council ratified the Commission’s recommendations including contracting with the LA LGBT Center for the years 2026, 2027, and 2028.

BACKGROUND / ANALYSIS:

The city will present up to six (6) concerts for 2026, as the budget allows, utilizing pre-approved artists from the Roster. Up to three (3) Summer Sounds concerts will be presented in Plummer Park in July – August, and up to three (3) Winter Sounds concerts will be presented in January – February.

The city received a total of 81 applications from 76 applicants between October 2025 - March 2026 for the Musicians and Performers Roster. 35 applicants provided exceptional work samples and demonstrated a style and quality of music that are recommended for the Musicians and Performers Roster, Attachment A. 5 applications were duplicative. The remaining applicants, listed in Attachment B, do not meet the City's standards for the WeHo Sounds Series. With the approval of the new applicants and musicians rotating off of the list, the WeHo Musicians and Performers Roster includes 159 musicians and performers.

HISTORY OF THE WEHO SOUNDS PROGRAM

The first Summer Sounds series, a free outdoor classical music concert series in Kings Road Park, was launched in 2007 with two (2) concerts. In 2008, three (3) additional concerts per year were added to the Summer Sounds series and jazz was first included. In 2009, the series expanded to include concerts at both Kings Road and Plummer Parks, and world music was first included. In 2013, the Winter Sounds series, a free indoor music concert series, was introduced with five (5) additional concerts presented at the West Hollywood Council Chambers in the first season.

In March 2020, the COVID-19 pandemic required all in-person gatherings to be cancelled. The City reimagined the in-person concert series into a presentation of free, intermittent, virtual concerts, WeHo Sounds Online Concert Series, that were presented November 2020 – February 2022. In 2022, the City returned to in-person programming with five (5) Summer Sounds concerts and three (3) Winter Sounds concerts. In 2023-24, the City hosted three (3) Summer Sounds concerts with a total of 8 performers each year, July – August in Plummer Park, and three (3) Winter Sounds concerts from January-February at The Sun Rose, inside the Pendry West Hollywood. In 2025, the City hosted three (3) Winter Sounds concerts, from January-February, at The Sun Rose, and three (3) Summer Sounds concerts in Plummer Park. In 2026 the City hosted three (3) Winter Sounds concerts at The Sun Rose.
